INDIANAPOLIS MAN SENTENCED FOR TRANSPORTATION AND POSSESSION OF CHILD PORNOGRAPHY

INDIANAPOLIS – Michael Wildridge, 41, pleaded guilty today to transportation and possession of child pornography and was sentenced to 10 years in prison, announced Assistant Attorney General of the Criminal Division Lanny A. Breuer, U.S. Attorney for the Southern District of Indiana Timothy M. Morrison and Resident Agent-in-Charge Daniel T. Dill of the Indianapolis office of U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE).

U.S. District Court Judge Sarah Evans Barker also sentenced Wildridge to lifetime supervised release following completion of his prison term, and ordered him to pay a $1,000 fine.

During today's plea and sentencing hearing, Wildridge admitted to sending child pornography to other individuals using the Internet and to possessing thousands of visual depictions of prepubescent minors engaging in sexually explicit conduct, including images depicting sadistic and masochistic conduct. Wildridge also admitted to collecting child pornography for nine years.

The case against Wildridge was prosecuted by Assistant U.S. Attorney Steven D. DeBrotta of the Southern District of Indiana and Trial Attorney Bonnie L. Kane of the Criminal Division's Child Exploitation and Obscenity Section (CEOS). The case was investigated by ICE Indianapolis, the Hamilton County Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force, the Indiana State Police, the Indianapolis Metropolitan Police Department, the FBI Miami Field Office and CEOS's High Technology Investigative Unit.
